

The Noel Brooks Memorial Conference: "Exploring Faith & Learning"

Southwestern Christian University

North Hall/Conference Center
Bethany, Oklahoma

March 30, 2012

8:30am to 4:40 pm

Certificate of Attendance provided*

Join us for an exciting day as we chart a course for the 21st with a bold new vision of the merging of faith and learning.

Bringing together vital Christian faith, traditional scholarship and a goal of impacting the world for Jesus Christ, SCU faculty, alums, and friends will lead through presentations of papers, thought challenging panel discussions, inter-active round tables, multi-topic poster presentations, and more!

Honoring a one time faculty member ,and noted British author, educator, pastor, and church leader, the Rev. Noel Brooks (1914-2006), the conference seeks to bring together the heritage and vigor of the Holiness, Pentecostal, and Evangelical traditions to blend them with the finest traditions of Scholarship to change the world. The Conference is a collaborative event sponsored by Academics, The University Library, and scholarly friends.

Cost is $25 (and includes lunch on campus). Group rates are available on request.

Read more and learn about the Student Essay Contest at www.swcu.edu/noelbrooksconference Pre-register today! Questions?

Call: 405-789-7661x3451 or email: Marilyn.hudson@swcu.edu

