ADJUNCT FACULTY POSITIONS

Southwestern Christian University invites applications for adjunct faculty positions to teach day, evening and online classes in various disciplines. Evening classes are offered at the Bethany and Tulsa Metro locations. Review of applications will begin immediately and selected candidates will be added to a pool of approved instructors who are called upon on an ongoing basis to fill classes.

Responsibilities
Teach undergraduate courses in Business, English, Social and Behavioral Sciences, Religion and Theology, General Education, and courses in accounting, finance and economics. Selected candidates may be required to attend an adjunct faculty orientation session.

Experience
Previous teaching experience and/or relevant industry experience preferred

Qualifications
1. Relevant Master’s degree required
2. Preference will be given to those who hold a doctoral degree and whose background and experience match with the instructional needs, mission and vision of the university
3. Must be a committed Christian who is supportive of the educational mission of the University that includes the integration of faith with teaching and scholarly pursuits

Only candidates with qualifications earned from regionally accredited institutions considered

Applications: Applicants should submit the following materials electronically
1. Curriculum vitae
2. Transcripts
3. Statement of Faith and Personal Testimony
4. Letter/Email of interest stating discipline in the subject line, e.g. Adjunct-English

Priority will be given to complete applications emailed to: Wallace Hamilton (wallace.hamilton@swcu.edu)

Southwestern Christian University is a Christian institution of higher education affiliated with the International Pentecostal Holiness Church. Southwestern Christian University complies with federal and state guidelines for non-discrimination in employment.